Style Guide

Serial commas

Serial commas are used, e.g. “this, that, and the other”

Quotation marks

Double with single within (“the ‘new’ regime”)

Punctuation

Inside quotation marks (“It is a fresh start.”)

Acronyms

Pointed (U.S.A.)

Dashes

Unspaced em-dash (The essays—first published in 1960—addresses this question.)

Numbers

- En-dashes are used (245–286)
- General: spelled out to ten, Arabic thereafter (one to ten, 11–)
- Number spans: maximum number spans (135–136)

Dates

June 7, 1918

First letter after colons

The first letter after colons should be capitalized

Bulleted and numbered lists

- Each line begins with a capital letter
- Each line ends with a full stop

Figures, tables, and appendices

There should be an in-text reference for every figure, table, or appendix, e.g. “see Figure 7.9”

Referencing Guide

General style
